

Is God calling you to a ministry in the parish?

As I mentioned on Pentecost Sunday, we as a parish are called to “blossom where we’re planted”.

Our challenge is to show Christ’s love to the people who are here, where we are, in this part of Yonkers, now. To that end:

One, or more, of you has a calling to help the poor.

Please consider coordinating an effort within our church family to assemble “kits” for the homeless and impoverished persons who come to the Rectory on a regular basis for help.

And one or more of you, I am confident, has a calling to help women and couples facing crisis pregnancies.

Please consider leading us in a commitment to provide maternity and baby supplies for Yonkers’ only crisis-pregnancy counseling center, the Life Options Center of Westchester County

(upon whose Board I currently serve as the sole Orthodox presence).
The “LOC” is in continual need of diapers, baby formula, cribs, strollers, and the like.

There are “in-house” ministries, as well:

***New item: Church School Teachers are needed for this coming school year.***
See Fr. David for more information.

There are three Parish Council positions which will open up early in 2016:
the offices of President, currently held by Victoria Statkevicius;
Treasurer, currently held by Jim Reduto; and Financial Secretary, held by Joel Statkevicius.

And, a volunteer is sought to pick up custodial supplies, about once a month.

You can either receive petty cash in advance, or submit your receipt for prompt reimbursement.

Fr. David will give you the shopping list – which typically numbers a dozen items or less.

If you feel your heart stirred when you read this ... then, it’s you. Please come and see me.

With love in Christ,
Fr. David

Date: September 11, 2015

On Friday, September 11, 2015, the Board of Trustees and Faculty of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary will bestow a Doctor of Divinity degree, honoris causa, upon His Holiness Irinej (Gavrilovic), archbishop of Peć, metropolitan of Belgrade-Karlovci, and patriarch of Serbia. Patriarch Irinej will also deliver a presentation titled "Theology as a Hope for the Future of the Church."

The patriarch will arrive on the seminary campus, briefly visit Three Hierarchs Chapel, and then proceed to the Academic Convocation. The public ceremony will be held at 6 p.m. in the Metropolitan Philip Auditorium of the John G. Rangos Family Building, and will include a Q & A session between the patriarch and attendees. An open reception will follow.

His Holiness Irinej, the 45th Patriarch of Serbia, was enthroned in his position on January 2010. His Holiness was ordained as a Hieromonk in 1959, and was both a professor and rector of Prizren Seminary. He also served as Bishop of Moravica and Nis prior to his election as patriarch.

In the Patriarch's entourage will be His Grace the Right Reverend Maxim (Vasiljevic), bishop of the Western American Diocese of the Serbian Orthodox Church of North and South America and seminary Trustee; His Grace the Right Reverend Dr. Mitrophan (Kodic), bishop of the Eastern American Diocese of the Serbian Orthodox Church of North and South America; and His Eminence the Most Reverend Jovan VI (Vraniškovski), archbishop of Ohrid and metropolitan of Skopje, which is under the Serbian Patriarchate of Peć.

Predrag Matejic to Present Meyendorff Lecture / Hierarchs

Tikhon & Joseph to be Honored

Date: September 14, 2015

Predrag Matejic, Ph.D., associate professor at Ohio State University's Center for Slavic and East European Studies, will present the third annual Father John Meyendorff Memorial Lecture on Monday, September 14, 2015. Speaking on the topic "Byzantium, the Slavs, and the Rise of the Russian Orthodox Church," he will focus on three historical periods: the conversion of the Slavs, the 10th–11th centuries, and the Russian Orthodox Church after the fall of Constantinople, including the councils of the 16th century.

Just prior to the lecture, the Seminary will honor His Beatitude the Most Blessed Tikhon, primate of the Orthodox Church in America, and His Eminence the Most Reverend Joseph, archbishop of New York and metropolitan of All North America of the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese. The Board of Trustees and Faculty will bestow a Doctor of Divinity degree, honoris causa, on both hierarchs at an Academic Convocation beginning at 7 p.m.

Metropolitan Tikhon serves as President of the Seminary and Chair of its Board of Trustees, and Metropolitan Joseph serves as Vice Chair of the Board.

TODAY'S EPISTLE Colossians 1:12-18 Brethren: Give thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light.<sup>13</sup>He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love,<sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.<sup>15</sup>He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.<sup>16</sup>For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him.<sup>17</sup>And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist.<sup>18</sup>And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

TODAY'S GOSPEL Luke 9:51-56; 10:22-24 Now it came to pass, when the time had come for Jesus to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem,<sup>52</sup>and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him.<sup>53</sup>But they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem.<sup>54</sup>And when His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as Elijah did?"<sup>55</sup>But He turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not know what manner of spirit you are of.<sup>56</sup>For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them. And they went to another village.<sup>22</sup>All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.<sup>23</sup>Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see;<sup>24</sup>for I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."
