TODAY’S EPISTLE Galatians 2:16-20 Brethren: Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

TODAY’S GOSPEL Luke 16:19-31 The Lord spoke this parable: “There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. Then he cried and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.’ But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.’ Then he said, ‘I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father’s house, for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.’ Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.’ And he said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ But he said to him, ‘If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.’”

COFFEE HOUR HAS MOVED TO THE CHURCH BASEMENT!

Beloved Parish Family,

We have moved coffee hour from the Ed Building to the basement of the church -- to have a more comfortable fellowship experience as we await the next phase of construction plans being finalized. Here are things you should know, and a few requests if you have the ability to participate:

- We will still have access to the bathrooms in the Ed Building until ours are installed in the church basement.
- Coffee and tea will be brewed with bottled water, as we don't yet have running water in the basement. We ask you each to bring a gallon of water with you this month, so that we can simplify the hosting effort.
- We will continue to have rolls and doughnuts, but in order to have something extra each week, and to lighten the load on our coffee hour hosts, please consider bringing a small dish to share, perhaps 6 or more servings--a kind of mini pot luck! Please keep in mind that we will not be able to store food items from week to week, except for milk, juice and butter.

Thank you for your contributions towards this fellowship! As the weather gets colder, our fellowship will warm it!

SPIRITUAL ENCOURAGEMENT FOR TODAY (AND EVERY DAY)...

"Truth is, the more comforts and technology we have, the more crazy things we invent to fill our days. Not only have we filled up our free time with new pastimes, we are missing out on the kind of work that lends itself to prayer — that redundant work of washing dishes or kneading bread which is now done by machines, was the kind of work that one could do while praying. We embraced progress, and now we pray less."

-- Elder Paisios of Mount Athos
